

I like how the title takes a space as a navigation header, and the aesthetics of the typography like a red ink stamp in east asian cultures.

SalmanOM

I enjoy the white space

SalmanOM

I love the aesthetics and art direction of deadlock.

Love the paper and brush stroke textures.

Im into the green colors here.

SalmanOM

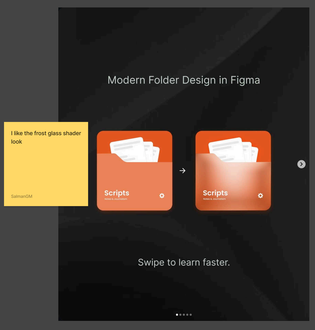

the poster design is up my alley, especially how strong thematically it is and the abstract elements in the background to bring life into it.

SalmanOM

I like the carousel of photos, and the title with description of the work follow satisfying hierarchy.

SalmanOM

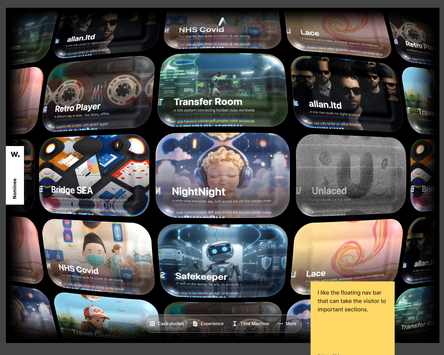

I like the frost glass shader look

SalmanOM

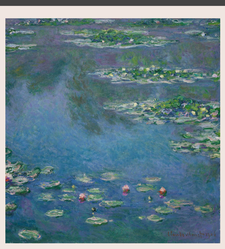

I like the analogous color scheme, and i like the analogue texture, and the flowing abstract starry background.

SalmanOM

I like the floating nav bar that can take the visitor to important sections.

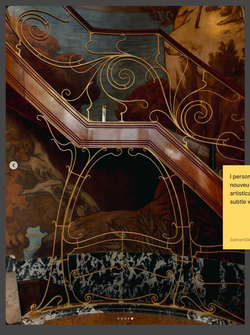

SalmanOM

I love the impressionist movement, like monet.

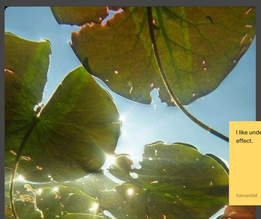

SalmanOM

I personally love art nouveu and want to artistically include it in subtle way.

SalmanOM

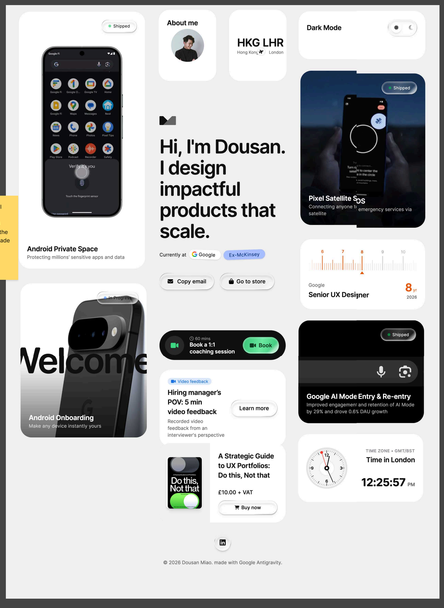

I like underwater light ray effect.

SalmanOM

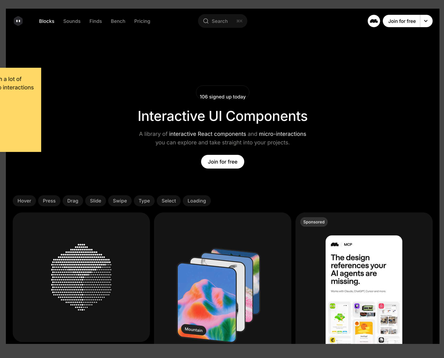

I like the page and scroll preview on the side for the project/case study page. and add another side menu to jump to sections

SalmanOM

I like the previews of UI and works beautifully aesthetic pictures that grabs the attention of the visitor, with tactfully made transitions and animations.

SalmanOM

I'm in love with a lot of Bencho, micro interactions for ui.
